

THE WEST OF ENGLAND BULL TERRIER CLUB

The aims of the Club are to promote the breeding of Bull Terriers to correct type and to circulate knowledge and general information on the breed. Members may live in any area. Applications will be considered by the Committee at their next meeting. The Committee reserves the right to refuse membership without stating reasons.

I /We the undersigned wish to put forward my/our name/s as prospective member of the above club, and promise to abide by its rules, and to subscribe to the following declaration of honour; "All members undertake not to breed from or offer at stud, any Bull Terrier that is deaf, or which has suffered, or is suffering, from any painful hereditary defect. Also that they will support the club in every way practicable to stop the breeding from such animals. Note: the club considers any dog deaf that cannot hear perfectly.

I/We also understand and accept that the club may keep members details on computer and that this information may be given to a third party without further consultation or notification.
